Unnayan "International bulletin of management and economics" is a blind peer reviewed journal incorporating papers from national as well as cross country authors. It is a bi-annual publication of IPS Academy, Institute of Business Management and Research (IBMR), Indore, M.P.(India). Its objective is to propose and foster discussions on empirical and theoretical work on management and economics. The journal seeks to provide a bridge between those conducting researches on management and economics on the one hand, and those willing to enhance and enrich their knowledge regarding these fields. The focus is on applied research and reflects the present scenario involving cross country researches, changes taking place and decision making suggestions. It has a special emphasis on management issues that are relevant to emerging economies.
